

“Treating Co-Occurring Disorders: Chemical Dependency and Sexual Addiction”

A Behavioral Health Professional Seminar

January 9, 8:30 am – Noon, Glendale Memorial Hospital Auditorium

1420 S. Central Ave., Glendale, CA 91204

3 CEU's: Board of Behavioral Sciences, BBS Provider # PCE2854, Board Of Registered Nurses, BRN Provider # 13569

To RSVP, Call (866) 594-8844

$50.00 Seminar Fee

- To identify the signs and clinical effects of, and the interactions between chemical dependency and sexual addiction;
- To understand current clinical strategies for intervening with drug/ alcohol addiction and compulsive sexual behavior;
- To develop and implement strategies designed to prompt treatment compliance and motivation, and to prompt trigger identification and avoidance;
- To understand continuity of care resources and supports for the recovery from drug and sex addiction;
- To improve clinical outcomes through understanding and integrating sound relapse prevention, compulsive sex and drug addiction therapies, while addressing paired drug use/ cravings and libidinal cues/ sexual behavior.

Sponsored by: Alternatives, Crossroads Centre Antigua, Glendale Memorial Hospital Alpha Treatment Center, Twin Town Treatment Centers

“Treating Co-Occurring Disorders: Chemical Dependency & Sexual Addiction”

January 9, 2007 8:30 am – 12:00 pm
Glendale Memorial Hospital Auditorium

Joe Kort, MSW

Presented By: Twin Town Treatment Centers, Alternatives, Crossroads Centre Antigua, Glendale Memorial Hospital Alpha Treatment Center

Crossroads Centre
Antigua

Twin Town Treatment
Centers

ALTERNATIVES

Alpha Treatment Center